WARRIOR TRAILS

By Robin Newcomer

Friday night proved to be a very thrilling night for cheerleader Nancy Fukomoto and football player Dave Cisel. The popular seniors were crowned Grid Queen and King at the highlight of the evening in the well-filled gym. Other members of the court were: Alan Coward, Diane Freeman, Judy Harris, Jan Hayes, Barry Hyde, Jim Morgan, Dave Puperi, Ken Thrapp and Sheri Wolldridge. Last week West had the pleasure of hosting six Turkish government visitors. They went on a general tour of the school with Dr. Robert Ford, but payed special interest in our library, language lab, science lab, Driver's Education equipment, industrial arts building, music room, and kitchen facilities. Selda Usterlinali, our exchange student from Turkey, also talked with them and accompanied them to lunch.

Chieftains have named four juniors as new members. Steve Bunch, Jone Jones, Karl Rodefer, and Jo Dee Taylor started working with the service club last week while sophomores Tami Erickson and Gay Smith were named auxiliary members.

WOULD YOU like to be one of the first people to greet our next foreign exchange student? This opportunity can be yours through the new exchange student club on campus. The sponsor, Mrs. Lynn LaFleur, stated that the three goals of the club are: to meet and personally welcome an exchange student before school actually begins; to learn more about the many organizations that an American student can go abroad with; and, to earn money to help finance a trip help support our team while also being on TV. Trail's end!

Letters were also mailed to American Field Service applicants on Friday. Judy Drury and I were named as West High nominees to go abroad after two weeks of screening. Applications will now be made out to the AFS/ New York, which will evaluate the applications and either reject or place one or both of us. Trail's end!

Cederlof Heads Christmas Seal Program in Torrance

Charles T. Cederlof of Torrance has been named 1966 Christmas Seal chairman for the South Bay region, it was announced today by Dr. Joseph F. Boyle, president of the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Los Angeles County. Cederlof, assistant vice president and manager of the Glendale Federal Savings & Loan Association in Torrance, is active in many community affairs. He is a past president of the Torrance Realtors Toastmasters, a director of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Rotary. As noted by Dr. Boyle, the Christmas Seal Campaign is conducted on a regional basis in accord with the Association's local community health services throughout the year. These include TB and valley fever testing in the schools, patient services in hospitals and health education for doctors, nurses, other professional groups and the public through printed materials, films and a speakers' bureau. This year's 60th annual drive against TB, emphysema and other respiratory diseases has as its theme, "Give Breath and Life Through Christmas Seals." Honorary chairman for the $1 million campaign, which will have its decorative Seals in the mail by November 14, is film and TV star Dick Van Dyke. Funds raised this year will also aid the TB and Health Association's new "Breathmobile" testing center, planned to detect emphysema and other respiratory diseases at an early stage when they can be most effectively treated.
